St. James's, May 13.

THE following Humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailliſs and Town-Council of the Burgh of Innerkeithing, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Henry Cuninghame Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailliſs and Town-Council of your ancient Burgh of Innerkeithing.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, from a moſt ſincere and grateful Senſe of our Happineſs and Security under your moſt gracious Government and wiſe Adminiſtration, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our warmeſt Wiſhes for the long Continuance of theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, and to join with the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, in expreſſing our higheſt Indignation, and juſt Reſentment at the Deſigns framed and carrying on by a Potentate who owes his former Safety, and preſent Greatneſs, to the victorious Arms of Great Britain, and his new Ally the King of Spain, in Favours of a Popiſh Pretender, thereby to impoſe upon us the Yoke of Superſtition and Arbitrary Power, manifeſtly tending to the Deſtruction of all that is dear and valuable to us as Chriſtians and loyal Subjects.

The vigorous Reſolutions of your Parliament have filled our Hearts with the greateſt Joy, and we are firmly perſuaded, that your Majeſty's unwearied Care, the prudent Diſpoſition of your Fleets abroad, and of your Troops at Home, will effectually check the lawleſs Ambition of thoſe who are Enemies to your Majeſty, and our moſt excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State.

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are with one Heart and Mind ready and determined to ſhew our juſt Reſentments for all Injuries done, or Indignities offered to your Majeſty and your People, and at all Hazards are ready to ſupport your Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

That your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of your People; that the ſame good Providence which hath hitherto preſerved your Majeſty, may protect your Sacred Perſon, and grant you long Life and a proſperous Reign; and that the Succeſſion of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms may for ever continue in your moſt illuſtrious Family, is the ſincere Wiſhes, and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

Signed in the Name, and by the Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the ſaid Burgh, by

Hen. Cuninghame, Provoſt.

The following humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town-Clerk and Burgeſſes of the Common-Council of the Burgh of Bury St. Edmonds, in the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Harvey, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

[Price Three Pence.]

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Town-Clerk, and Burgeſſes of the Common-Council of the Burgh of Bury St. Edmonds, in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the Peace and Repoſe of Europe is diſturbed by one Sovereign Power, whoſe Ability to do ſo is chiefly owing to the Bravery and Succeſs of the Arms of Great Britain, under the Conduct of one of your Majeſty's Subjects the victorious Duke of Marlborough, and the Trade of your induſtrious and loyal People (yielded and ſecured to us by ſeveral Treaties) is interrupted by the ſame Power, who is but lately acquainted with the Benefit and Advantage of Commerce:

When your Fortreſs of Gibraltar is actually beſieged, and Port Mahon (that Safeguard of your Fleets) is threatened to be attacked by the Force of another Power, and an abjured Pretender by their united Efforts deſigned to be ſet on your Majeſty's Throne, whoſe Laws to a Proteſtant Nation will be wrote in Blood, and the Yoak of whoſe Religion our Fathers were not able to bear: Give us Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ſupport and maintain your Royal Perſon and Family, to your lateſt Poſterity, in the Poſſeſſion of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, by freely offering our Wealth in the Preſervation of our Laws, and ſacrificing our Lives in the Defence of our Religion, and in ſupporting your Majeſty's rightful Title to theſe your Dominions.

It is no Wonder, that the Happineſs we enjoy under your mild and gentle Adminiſtration, ſhould derive upon us the Envy of thoſe who are Strangers to ſuch Bleſſings; but we doubt not, but by the Wiſdom of your Council at Home, who ſo timely diſcovered the Contrivances of your Enemies, and by the Valour of your Armies, and thoſe of your Allies Abroad, they will be obliged to ſue to your Majeſty for that Peace, which in Breach of the moſt ſolemn Treaties they have ingloriouſly diſturbed.

Given under our common Seal at the Guild-hall within the ſaid Burgh, this 4th Day of May, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, in the Kingdom of Ireland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

YOUR Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of this City, beg Leave to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty with Hearts full of Gratitude for the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and glorious Adminiſtration, and in a more eſpecial Manner for your paternal Care of the darling Intereſts and Privileges of your People, at this Time when the Enemies of your Majeſty and theſe Nations have entred into clandeſtine and unjuſtifiable Engagements to diſturb your Majeſty's Government and the Peace and Tranquility of Europe.

All your Majeſty's Subjects muſt highly reſent the King of Spain's unjuſt Attempt upon Gibraltar, and the Emperour's uſurped and extended Exerciſe of Trade and Commerce; but when we reflect, that to theſe great Injuries they have ſuperadded that of combining to impoſe a Popiſh Pretender on your Majeſty's Kingdoms, we cannot find Words to expreſs our Reſentment and Indignation.

This open Violation of all national Faith, and the moſt ſolemn Treaties, committed by both theſe Princes, and the particular and unparallel'd Behaviour of the latter of them, whoſe preſent Greatneſs was principally purchaſed with the Blood and Treaſure of Great Britain, fill us with Amazement; but we comfort ourſelves, in that we make no doubt but the Arms and Influence of Britain will ſoon reduce them both to ſue for the Re-eſtabliſhment of that Repoſe which they have diſturbed, and prove as effectual in bringing the Emperour to Reaſon, as they were inſtrumental in raiſing him to Power.

As we are by Duty, by Gratitude, and by Intereſt bound, ſo are we by the moſt ardent Affection and Inclination, led readily and chearfully to offer unto your Majeſty our utmoſt Aſſiſtance on this great Emergency: And we ſhall not ceaſe to pray, that all Deſigns formed againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon or Government, may be confounded and brought to nought, and that all your Enemies may fall before you.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed the common Seal of this City, the 29th Day of March, Anno Domini 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, and Citizens of the City of Waterford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs

Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, and Citizens of the City of Waterford, at an Aſſizes held in and for the County of the ſaid City, the 8th Day of March 1726.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty, to repeat the Tenders of our Allegiance to your Royal Perſon and Government, our affectionate Regard to the true Intereſt of your Dominions, and our juſt Reſentment of the Counſels and Meaſures entered into by ſome foreign Powers then engaged in the Common Cauſe, and in whoſe Favour the Zeal and Valour of Great Britain was moſt eminently diſtinguiſhed, ſo ſoon to enter into Meaſures which appear to be manifeſtly injurious to the Honour of your Majeſty, and Subverſion of the Trade, Peace and Happineſs of your People.

When we remember the Expence of Blood and Treaſure, under which Europe groaned, and which lay particularly heavy on theſe Kingdoms, in order to ſettle a juſt Balance of Power and Trade, and at the ſame Time to ſupport our Neighbours moſt expoſed, we cant but be ſurprized to ſee any of the Powers evidently ſhew they have loſt their Regards to the juſt Rights of their ancient Friends, as well as to the moſt generous Obligations.

And as we think ourſelves bound with Hearts full of Thankfulneſs and Joy to acknowledge the ſuperior Wiſdom and Penetration of your Majeſty's Counſels, and your unwearied Endeavours for the Good of your People, hitherto highly favoured of Heaven, and bleſs'd with the moſt agreeable Succeſs, particularly in the Conduct of the laſt Year, ſo we take Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that till ſuch Time as we can find it practicable to reconcile the Intereſts and Paſſions of a Popiſh Pretender and a Proteſtant Church, an arbitrary Tyrant and a free People, Slavery and Liberty, Poverty and Baſeneſs with Plenty and true Glory, it is impoſſible but that your Majeſty muſt be poſſeſſed of our Hearts, and all that's in our Power to contribute toward the Support of your undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, and the Felicity and Glory of your Reign.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Grand Jury, of the City of Limerick, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Grand Jury, of the City of Limerick, at the Aſſizes held the 4th Day of April 1727.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible of the great Happineſs which we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, take Leave to lay hold of this Opportunity of our being called together, to expreſs our juſt Reſentments againſt all Attempts to diſturb the Quiet of your Reign.

We of this City, who have formerly felt the Effects of a Popiſh and Arbitrary Power, under the Tyranny of the late King James, muſt with the greateſt Concern ſee the moſt ineſtimable Bleſſings, ſuch as our religious and civil Rights, again endeavoured to be wreſted from us; we owe their Reſtoration to a glorious Proteſtant King, and are convinced, that under your Majeſty, who is now the undoubted Defender of that Faith, they only can be preſerved to us, and tranſmitted to our Poſterity by the Continuance of the Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom in the Care you have ſhewn for the Trade of your People, fills us with the utmoſt Gratitude; and as we ſee the Treaties and Confederacies carried on to deſtroy it, and place on us a Pretender and a Popiſh Impoſtor are chiefly contrived by a Prince to whom you have been a Protector, and whoſe Poſſeſſions are owing to the Succeſs of your Arms, we look upon theſe Injuries with the greateſt Abhorrence.

And we do aſſure your Majeſty, that our Zeal to your Service ſhall not be confined to the Walls of this your City, but as in Defence of them we reſolve to riſque our Lives at Home, ſo we ſhall think it our Duty at the ſame Hazard to preſerve your juſt Rights Abroad.

The following humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand-jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, has been preſened to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at a General Quarter Seſſions of of the Peace held for the ſaid County, on the 13th of April, 1727.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

WE the Juſtices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held for this County, this 13th of April, 1727, take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty of our great Duty and Loyalty to your moſt ſacred Perſon, and Zeal for the Proſperity of your moſt gracious and mild Government over us; and humbly beg Leave, among the moſt dutiful of your Majeſty's Subjects, to engage to your Majeſty, that we will not only at this particular Juncture (when the moſt ſolemn Treaties are broke through by thoſe who had the greateſt Obligations to your Majeſty) but during our Lives, ſupport your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all your Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Fermanagh, at the Aſſizes held at Eniskillen, for the ſaid County, on the 15th of March, 1726.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave (at this Time when powerful Enemies have conſpired againſt you, and your Dominions are threatened with an Invaſion in favour of a Popiſh Pretender to your Crown and Dignity) to ſhew our juſt Abhorrence of ſuch ungenerous Practices, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our unwearied Zeal to ſupport you, and the valuable Bleſſings we enjoy under you, with our Lives and Fortunes.

It is with Surprize and Abhorrence we ſee a great Prince juſt preſerved from Deſtruction, and flouriſhing by the Support of Britiſh Arms and Counſels, ungratefully turning his Forces againſt his Deliverers, and ſtriving to heap on us all the Miſeries and Deſolations from which we have juſt reſcued him and his Dominions.

In which vain and ungrateful Attempts, if he has any Hopes of being ſupported by any of your Majeſty's Subjects, we doubt not but his Diſappointment will convince him of the Folly of his Views: Nor can we believe that any true Proteſtant, in the full Enjoyment of all valuable Bleſſings, under the beſt of Princes, will break through all the Ties of Honour and Conſcience, to enſlave himſelf and all his Poſterity to an abjured and enraged Popiſh Pretender.

Our Anceſtors of this County have before this ſignalized themſelves in an uncommon Manner in Defence of Liberty and a Proteſtant Cauſe, under our Glorious Deliverer King William; and we now aſſure your Majeſty with the utmoſt Sincerity, we have the ſame Inclinations for the ſame Cauſe, and are ready and willing to ſacrifice all that is dear to us in the Support of your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe.

And that your Majeſty may, in ſpite of all your Enemies Foreign and Domeſtick, live long, and reign happily over us, and when you are tranſlated to a better Place, we may never want a Succeſſour from your Royal Loins, endued with your Virtues, to reign over us to the lateſt Generations, is the hearty and ſincere Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Seſſion of the Peace held at Kilmainham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutentant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

At a General Seſſion of the Peace, held at Kilmainham for the County of Dublin, the 15th Day of April 1727. The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the ſaid County.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, do on this our firſt Opportunity, with the utmoſt Gratitude, acknowledge your Royal Goodneſs in the early and effectual Care you have been pleaſed to take for the Preſervation of the Trade, Commerce, and Rights of your Subjects, and the Vindicaion of your Majeſty's Honour.

The Meaſures lately taken to impoſe an abjured Popiſh Pretender on your Majeſty's Throne, and thereby deprive us of the Bleſſings we have conſtantly enjoyed under your auſpicious Reign, and rob us of our civil and religious Rights, muſt and do fill our Hearts with the utmoſt Reſentment and Indignation, on, especially when we consider that one of the Powers concerned in this Attempt owes his present Grandeur to the Arms, Blood and Treasure of these your Majesty's Dominions.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, with the greatest Readiness, devote our Lives and Fortunes to the Defence of your Majesty and your Royal Family's undoubted Rights, and to the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, against all your and our Enemies both at Home and Abroad.

The following humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, has been presented to His Majesty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Sligoe, the 12th Day of April 1727.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Sligoe, beg Leave in the humblest Manner to offer up our hearty Thanks to your Royal Majesty for your princely Care of these Kingdoms, at this Time, when the most solemn Treaties entered into by neighbouring Powers are most unjustly violated.

It is with the greatest Pleasure we see your Majesty sending out your Fleets to command the Seas, and protect our Trade, which, we doubt not, will be as successful as the Cause you are engaged in is just and honourable.

We have lately read a libellous Paper, intitled, the Emperour's Memorial to your Majesty, with the highest Resentment and Abhorrence, the Falsity of which the Memorialist must have known, and that it could have no other Tendency but to raise a Distrust of your sacred Majesty in the Minds of your People, though it must have a quite different Effect upon all your faithful Subjects, who have any Regard for their Religion, Liberties, and Properties; in maintaining whereof, your great Zeal hath brought upon your most sacred Majesty the Wrath and Indignation of those Princes who would destroy them, inraged that their Schemes for setting up a most exorbitant Power, are by your Majesty's Wisdom and Vigilance discovered and rendered abortive.

We do therefore sincerely, unanimously and chearfully assure your Majesty, that we will upon this and all other Occasions, exert the utmost of our Abilities, and contribute whatever lies in our Power for the Preservation of your sacred Person and the Succession in your Royal House, in Opposition to all your Enemies; and we will take particular Care in all our several Stations to preserve the Peace of the Country, by keeping a watchful Eye over the Popish Inhabitants, who are the only Persons of this Country who can even be suspected of Disaffection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

From on board the Torbay, 20 Leagues from Cape St. Mary's, April 13, O. S. Sir Charles Wager with the Squadron of His Majesty's Ships under his Command, sailed Yesterday from Gibraltar to cruise, with this Ship, the Sterling-Castle, Burford, Kent, Royal Oak, Canterbury, York, and the Pool Fireship. We left at Gibraltar, the Tyger, Winchester, Lyme, Solebay Bombship, Thunder Bombship, Cruizer and Hawk Sloops, and they are to be joyned by the Portland from Lagos, and by the Dursley Galley from Lisbon: They are to remain at Gibraltar, and cruize on the Back of the Hill, and off Cabarita Point, to intercept Spanish Imbarkations, and secure our Merchant Ships against Half Gallies, and one of them will be generally going to Tetuan or Tangier. Sir Charles Wager ordered the Colchester and Swallow to sail from Gibraltar to Port-Mahon, to clean there. We had a great deal of blowing Weather and Rain while we lay at Gibraltar: And two Days before we came away the Solebay arrived there with the Detachment of 500 Men from Port Mahon. By all we observed at Gibraltar, the Spaniards seem to have undertaken a Work there that is more than they are able to go through with, having made so slow a Progress in two Months, that they have done little or no Damage to the Works, and have killed but very few Men since the Siege began; whereas Deserters from them reported their Army was diminished extreamly by Sickness, Desertion, and killed or wounded: The Rains fill their Trenches with Water, and put them to great Difficulties. The Conde de las Torres was ill of an Ague.

Lisbon, May 5, N. S. On the 27th past several Merchant Ships from London enter'd this Port, having been convoyed as far as the Rock of Lisbon by the Prince Frederick and Yarmouth Men of War; who were the same Day seen passing by St. Ubes, to the Southward, with the the Tranſports having on board the Detachment of Guards and Clayton's Regiment, and the Storeſhips, under their Care; and as the Weather has continued favourable ever ſince, there can be no doubt of their being long before this arrived at Gibraltar. When they firſt came off the Rock of Lisbon, the 26th paſt, the Earl of Portmore wrote a Letter to Brigadier Dormer the Britiſh Envoy here, in which his Lordſhip acquainted him that the Forces with him were all in a very good Condition. On the 1ſt Inſtant the Durſley Galley ſailed from hence for Gibraltar: At the ſame Time the Portugueſe Fleet bound for the Bahia, conſiſting of 14 Merchant Ships, ſailed from hence under the Convoy of N. Senhora de Roſario a Man of War of 40 Guns.

St. James's, May 13.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant to the Honourable George Cholmondeley, Eſq; commonly called Viſcount Malpas, the Office of Gentleman and Maſter of His Majeſty's Robes.

Admiralty-Office, May 4, 1727.

Whereas at the Time of fitting out His Majeſty's Fleet, there were Protections granted from and after the 14th Day of February laſt, not only to outward-bound Ships, but to Ships and Veſſels trading Coaſtways, Fiſhing-Veſſels, Peter-Boats, and others, ſeveral of which are now almoſt expired; The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, That all ſuch Protections as have been ſo granted by them, as aforeſaid, or to any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, notwithſtanding the reſpective Dates thereof, continue in Force for Three Months longer, from this Day, without Renewal; and their Lordſhips have ſtrictly directed all Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and other Officers of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels who now are, or ſhall be employed in impreſſing Men, to have a particular Regard thereunto. By Command of their Lordſhips,

J. Burchett.
